Elmhurst, Illinois, February 16, 2007—The Medical-Dental-Hospital Business Associates (MDHBA) will host the MDHBA Institute – Developing Your Team, June 7-9 at the Marriott Cincinnati at the RiverCenter, announced Scott Koenig, CPBE, chairman of the board and president of General Audit Corp. located in Lima, Ohio.

The 2007 MDHBA Institute is a dynamic new direction in education for the association. Developed by the MDHBA Education Committee, this program addresses the need for today's medical collections office to develop a team spirit and relationship among its sales, marketing, operations, and collections personnel. Program highlights include: team building, management support, client relationships, and unconventional sales techniques. Additionally, attendees will have ample opportunity for networking between sessions and at scheduled events.

For program details, or to register for the MDHBA Institute, visit www.mdhba.org, or contact the association at 630.941.8100.
