Elmhurst, Illinois, May 16, 2006—The Medical-Dental-Hospital Business Associates (MDHBA) will debut a new benefit for its members and the industry June 28, 2006. MDHBA's audio conference series will begin with "Legal Update 2006", a presentation from John Bedard, Jr., MDHBA's legal counsel and an attorney with the law firm of Franzén & Salzano, PC.

This sixty-minute program will run from 11 a.m. – noon Central Time on June 28. The registration fee includes phone time and handouts (if available), and is $65 for MDHBA members and $95 for non-members. Topics being addressed include: source of complaints; collection notice do's and don'ts; compliance and collection letter tips; and a litigation update.

Features of MDHBA audio conference seminars are:

- Valuable education that can lead to MDHBA certification;
- Low cost of participation;
- Ability for staff members to join the call with just one paid registration;
- Convenience—no travel or hotel expense...no time out of the office.

"This new series is just one way in which MDHBA is expanding its benefits," says Mike Landrum, CPBE, president of MDHBA and vice president of sales & marketing, E.A. Uffman & Associates, Inc. "Audio conferences offer a convenient and cost-effective means for agencies and their employees to receive valuable education on current topics."

Details and registration are available on the MDHBA web site at <http://www.mdhba.org>.
