Elmhurst, Illinois, September 19, 2006—David G. Morrisey, Director of Development, General Audit Corp., Lima, Ohio, has earned his Certified Professional Business Executive (CPBE) designation from the Medical-Dental-Hospital Business Associates (MDHBA), announced Jack Nixon, CPBE, chairman of the organization's Certification Committee.

Morrisey, who is an Associate Member of MDHBA, is an active participant in the collections industry. Most recently, he was a presenter at the association's Sales & Marketing Institute this past June. At General Audit Corp., he is responsible for sales and marketing, HR, and corporate development.

In addition to his MDHBA participation, Morrisey is a member of the Hospital Financial Managers Association, the Medical Group Management Association, the Michigan Patient Accounting Association, and the Lima Rotary Club.

CPBE recognizes individuals who meet rigorous standards of professionalism, including healthcare client endorsements, industry experience, civic achievements, and support of professional associations. CPBE recipients are expected to demonstrate and maintain high standards of business services.

Medical-Dental-Hospital Business Associates is a nation-wide network of independent businesses that provide accounts receivable management services and products to the healthcare industry. Formed in 1939, MDHBA and its members set a tone of collaboration and continuous improvement within the demanding and competitive world of healthcare financial services. With more than 80 members nationwide, MDHBA provides a forum for idea exchange, continuing education and certification. For more information, contact: MDHBA, 350 Poplar Ave., Elmhurst, IL 60126.
